

Ringgenberg-Goldswil - Your Holiday Villages near Interlaken

The villages Ringgenberg and Goldswil, 4 minutes from Interlaken situated on Lake Brienz are the ideal starting point for excursions to the Jungfrau Region, the Schilthorn and much more.

The villages

Ringgenberg with about 2500 inhabitants and Goldswil, with circa 600 inhabitants form one of the larger political communities of the Jungfrau Region. The villages have been able to keep their typical Bernese Oberland chalet style alive over the past decades due to a strict building code. The old castle church and the fortress ruins, as well as the Schadburg fortress and church ruins Goldswil dating back to the 11-hundreds enable an insight into our past.

Lido Burgseeli

The natural lido Burgseeli, a small lake situated between Goldswil and Ringgenberg, is a popular destination for people from all over. The water's warm temperature reaching up to 26° C allows bathing from as early as May through September. In the unspoilt beauty of a nature preserve you can swim between ducks and water lilies.

Accommodations

Ringgenberg-Goldswil offers you the choice of 8 hotels, more than 80 holiday apartments and chalets as well as two camping sites.

Trains, busses and boats

Both villages are accessible by boat, bus and the "Zentralbahn" from Interlaken and Lucerne. Hourly a bus service connects Ringgenberg-Goldswil with the whole region. In summer as well as winter you may reach by way of the Bernese Oberland and the Jungfrau railways the beautiful hiking- and ski territory of the Jungfrau region. After a one-hour-ride along the famous holiday places Lauterbrunnen, Wengen, Mürren, and Grindelwald, you reach the fascinating mountain world of our alps.

Activities

For hiking (unique is our pathway to the planets) or biking Ringgenberg-Goldswil is ideal. An immense net of marked hiking paths with view of lakes and mountains are a walkers, hikers and mountaineers dream. For mountainbikers the villages offer varied adventures. Bike rentals at reasonable prices are possible at the local bike shop. For sport freaks Ringgenberg-Goldswil offers varied excitements: Ice-Climbing, glacier-walking, canyoning, river rafting, tandem-paragliding, flights by plane or helicopter, "Wildbeobachtungen", crossbow shooting and lots more are activities you can book at the tourist office in the centre of Ringgenberg. Folklore events are organized by the tourist office and other village associations during the warm summer months. In the evenings you can have a talk in one of our pubs or you can take part of night-life in Interlaken.
